PRESS RELEASE

Schawn Little today plead guilty in Butler County Common Pleas Court to his part in the murder-for-hire of Jeff Thomas. Little plead to the following:

Conspiracy to Commit Aggravated Murder

10 Years

Kidnapping

10 Years

Gun Specification

1 Year

Sentences to be served consecutively- total confinement period- 21 Years

Little indicated he was remorseful and wished he had not been a part of the scheme that resulted in the homicide.

“We are aggressively going after anyone else who had any part in the death of Jeff Thomas”, said Butler County Prosecutor Robin Piper.

“Our office is very pleased with today’s plea by Mr. Little, and we once again want to thank the Butler County Prosecutor’s Office for their aggressive role they have maintained from the beginning, in prosecuting this heinous drug-related crime”, said Commander John Burke of the Greater Warren County Drug Task Force.
